

Final Statement of Reasons

CGCC-GCA-2007-R-2

“License Conversion Date Extension”

Public hearing(s): No APA public hearing was scheduled, and none was requested. However, this regulation was taken up at the Bagley-Keene public hearing held by the Commission on May 31, 2007. There were no public comments, and the Commission adopted the regulation as originally proposed.

Comments received and responses thereto: No written comments were received during the 45-day comment period.

Update of Initial Statement of Reasons: No changes to be made. The Initial Statement of Reasons is incorporated as if fully set forth in this section.

Required Determinations

Local Mandate: These regulations do not impose a mandate on local agencies or school districts.

Reasonable alternatives to the proposed regulations and reasons for rejecting those alternatives: No alternative considered by the Commission would be more effective in carrying out the purpose for which the regulation is proposed or would be as effective and less burdensome to affected private persons than the adopted regulation. The Commission is not aware of any reasonable alternative that would permit extension of the license conversion deadline.

Reasonable alternatives to the proposed regulatory action that would lessen any adverse impact on small business: The Commission has determined that there will be no adverse impact on small business.

Impact on private persons: The Commission is not aware of any reasonable alternatives that would be more effective or as effective and less burdensome to private persons.

Impact on business: The Commission has made a determination that the proposed regulatory changes will not have a significant statewide adverse economic impact directly affecting business, including the ability of California businesses to compete with businesses in other states.
